TERMINOLOGY

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE is a pattern of behaviors used to control another person. Abuse can be physical, emotional, sexual, psychological, and financial.

SEXUAL ASSAULT is any sexual contact made without consent.

STALKING is a pattern of behaviors that include unwanted attention, harassment or threats that cause a person to fear for their safety.

HUMAN TRAFFICKING is a crime involving the exploitation of a person using force, fraud or coercion for the purposes of compelled sex or labor.

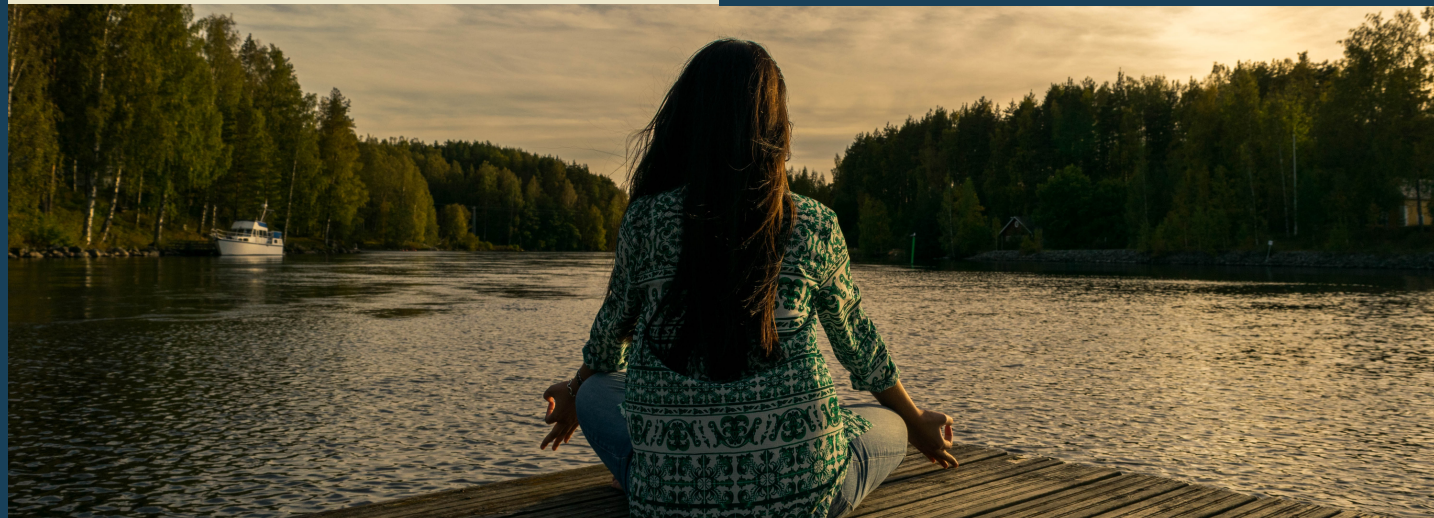

ELDER ABUSE and mistreatment refers to any knowing, intentional, or negligent act that causes harm or creates a risk of harm to an older person by a family member, caregiver, or other person in a trusted relationship.

TEEN DATING VIOLENCE encompasses varying levels and types of abuse ranging from physical and sexual violence to forms of psychological and emotional abuse occurring between teens who are dating or are in romantic relationships with one another.

Tribal Victim Services assists Native and Non-Native victims of person crimes residing in the Northeast Kansas counties of Jackson, Jefferson, Atchison, Nemaha, Brown, Shawnee, and Pottawatomie. Advocates work primarily with victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking, sex trafficking, teen dating violence, and elder abuse by offering crisis intervention and support services. TVS provides a victim-centered, strength-based approach to support, services, and healing to empower survivors to break free from the cycle of violence that is rooted in power and control. Our services are confidential and delivered with respect, empathy, and care. Contact a TVS advocate at 785-966-8331 for more information or call the 24/7 TVS HOTLINE at 866-966-0173 in crisis or after hours.
