ATTACHMENT “A”- SCOPE OF WORK

The District Court shall be comprised of at least one (1) judge, and more than one if the need arises. The Nation's Law and Order Code requires a member of the Nation's Judicial Council be a citizen or a member of an Indian nation, a graduate of an accredited law school, and be admitted to the practice of law.

The District Court Judge Pro Tem shall serve on a part-time or as-needed basis per month, unless otherwise negotiated and agreed to in writing by the Nation. It is anticipated that this will be no more than 10-15 hours per month and will be paid at a daily stipend rate and/or hourly rate. Assignments are at the discretion of the Administrative Judge for the District Court and subject to the Nation's needs. The District Court Judge Pro Tem when serving is subject to the terms and conditions of their contract with the Nation and Title 2 of the Nation's Law and Order Code.

General Duties and Powers. District Court, Court of Appeals, Employee Disputes Tribunal.

- (A) The District Court shall have such power necessary to decide all criminal and civil disputes and proceedings except disputes regarding elections and government employment. The Court of Appeals shall have such power necessary to review decisions appealed from the District Court. The District Court and the Court of Appeals shall have the power to review legislative and executive actions for consistency with the Nation's Constitution.
- (B) All Judges and Justices in cases within their authority shall have the duty and power to conduct all court proceedings and issue all orders and papers in order to administer justice in all matters unless disqualified for conflict of interest or cause. In doing so the Court shall:
  - (1) Be responsible for creating and maintaining the regulations and rules of the Court, not conflicting with the Tribal Code for the orderly and efficient administration of justice. Such rules must be filed in the office of the Court Clerk before becoming effective.
  - (2) Hold Court regularly at a designated time and place.
  - (3) Undertake all duties and exercise all authority of a judicial officer under the law.
  - (4) Hear and decide all cases properly brought before the Court.
  - (5) Enter all appropriate orders and judgments.
  - (6) Issue all appropriate warrants and subpoenas.
  - (7) Keep all records as may be required.
  - (8) The performance of any and all other duties as may be required for the operation of the District Court, which may include Healing to Wellness Court duties, as assigned by the Administrative Judge for the District Court.
